

Protist RAFT

Protists are tiny, unique and often perceived as disgusting little creatures. This group of organisms are quite diverse and include the organisms that don't fit into the other kingdoms (they aren't animals, plants or fungi). So do they count as being a living thing? Do they have a purpose? Are they helpful? Harmful?

TASK: Create a final product based on your chosen RAFT.

- Choose a role you would like to play. From there move horizontally to determine the format, topic and audience for your product.
- Class notes may be used.
- It is encouraged to do additional research for your topic in order to create a high quality product.
- In your final product be sure to explain how the amoeba, paramecium, euglena, and volvox are similar AND different. Be sure to include information about...
 - Movement
 - Reproduction
 - Eating

ROLE	AUDIENCE	FORMAT	TOPIC
Plant-like protists	Middle schoolers	Diary entry	I wish you knew how important I was
Paramecium	Spotify Users	Poem/Song/Rap (choose 1)	We are alive
Euglena	Sun	Thank-you letter	You give me life
Amoeba	Other protists (euglena, volvox, paramecium)	Speech	Humans will someday understand our importance

Final products must be

- Typed (12 pt font)
- Double spaced
- MINIMUM of one-page
- Submitted to CANVAS by Tuesday, February 12
